

Does Your Child Love Music?

Enroll them today in BuildaBridge International's
Orchestral Dialogues:
Accepting Self, Accepting Others

WHAT: Orchestral Dialogues is a one-of-a-kind opportunity for kids of Philadelphia to learn about diversity and teamwork, while receiving a FREE musical education (just a $25 registration fee). Our program not only delivers the skill and discipline of learning an instrument, but also embraces the therapeutic effects and self-awareness music and talking about music can provide. Students do not need to own their own instrument, BuildaBridge will help provide them. Enroll today, give the gift of music, and watch your child's soul and skill reach new heights!
